“ *Dear Sissy and family,
I was so sorry to learn from Jimmy and Olive about the diagnosis and then the loss of your sweet Bob. You and your family are in my prayers and thoughts. Such a comfort to know that Bob is with his Heavenly Father and in a whole new body.
Stay strong and you know Who is taking care of you.

“ Bob was a gentle spirit and he had a great sense of humor. Many good memories of serving together in church, small group Bible studies and for Threads of Love. We need more men like him.

“ Oh, the many memories of Bob in the church kitchen and in an apron fixing and serving many Threads of Love conference meals - and of the 'jet-pilot drives' as we shared adventures to places we'd never been down the street or across several states! Thank you for the memories! Will be seeing you, Lynn and Jane Redels

“ Bob was my cousin, our mothers were sisters. All of the cousins loved to get together and have a good time. As adults we all seemed to go down our own path, but reunions were precious. I'll miss you, Bob.

Bob was my cousin as well, I'm Sherri's younger sister. We all looked forward to getting together with one another. Growing up we were all close. My fondest memories were with my cousins and grandparents. Love you cousin Bob , you will be missed greatly.

“ “Mr. Sissy” as he was affectionately named at our Threads of Love conferences, will be missed for his sweet smile, caring nature, and giving/loving spirit. He prepped and served all the meals to all the “Threads” who attended. We miss you Bob. Thank you for lots of good memories and great food over a lot of years.
