

Robert "Bob" Harry Ferguson

November 10, 1946 - July 23, 2024

Bob Ferguson, age 77, after a lengthy battle with cancer passed away peacefully on Tuesday morning, July 23, 2024.

Bob was a native of Maurice, LA and a longtime resident of Denham Springs LA. Throughout his life, Bob served his Lord and Savior, Family, and community.

- Mayor of Maurice
- President of the Vermillion Parish Mayors Association
- Vermillion Parish Library Board of Control
- President of the Maurice Fire Department
- Grand Knight, Maurice Knights of Columbus 3rd and 4th Degree
- Grand Knight, Immaculate Conception Denham Springs
- Member of St. Alphonsus Catholic Church
- Trustee in Immaculate Conception Church
- State-Level Treasurer of Knight of Columbus

His family always came first. Hunting and fishing with his boys or doing anything needed for his daughter was always priority number one.

Grandchildren were his real pride and joy, there was nothing he would not do for any of them.

Bob is survived by daughter, Amy Ferguson (Ervin), sons, Mike Ferguson

(Stacy), and Eddie Ferguson (Shannon); grandchildren, Emily, Lauren (Kevin), Parker, Caroline, Chase, Luke, Henry, Anna, and Robert.

Bob is preceded in death by his loving wife, Wanda M. Ferguson; mother Jeanne Marie Ferguson; father, Edward Ferguson (Ivy); brother, Thomas "Tommy" Ferguson (Regina); grandparents, Robert and Amay Dartez.

“ Bobby was a favorite third cousin of mine. He and my father were second cousins on the Hebert side of their families. Always so easy to talk to and kind. He helped a few of us Maurice natives to preserve the history and charm of Maurice and I will always admire and appreciate him for his forward thinking vision and willingness to make Maurice a special place to live. May Bobby's soul rest in peace.
