“ Dear Joiner Family ... My heart goes out to you today. As I looked in the Daily Star for someone I knew passed Sunday morning, I saw Mr. Joiner's notice. Mr Joiner touched my heart and memory after his Becky passed and I met him at Thompson's Grief Support group. In fact, he touched me on my arm in a brief calm of his distress that first gathering to tell me he believed in angels too. A couple of grief gatherings later when a lady who lost her husband couldn't shake her feelings of loneliness after returning 2 years to the group, Mr Joiner joined in with me to agree that having a little pet was a wonderful thing to help fill that feeling of loneliness. I know it will be difficult without him, but he is most certainly with God and the love of his life. It was my honor to have met such a sensitive man in my journey to recover too from the loss of my wife. God bless. Ed
