“ I really don't know where to start. I remember the first time Jr. introduced me to Ronnie, he said this is my side kick and best friend for life, he is the brother I never had, They were something when they were together. They had a lot of good times together and Sandra kept both of them straight. Sandra I just want to say Jr. and I are so sorry and our pain is nothing compared to yours. i pray for God to give you the strength to help you thru this and he will. We Love You and are here for you in thoughts, prayers and support.

“ I have So Many Fond Memories of Ronnie along with his Family, Sandra, Jason, & Tiffany. We were Friends with Sandra when she met Ronnie and was So Happy when they Married...We were there when Ronnie became Jason's Dad, That was the BEST Day...We were there when Tiffany was born, She is Ronnie's "Mini-Me" and His Life was Complete, He was Daddy to a Boy & Girl...One PROUD Daddy! Ronnie and Lum were the Very Best of Friends for Many, Many Years...Some even thought they were Brothers because they shared the Last Name. There was Never a Dull Moment when they got together and then when "Speed Buggy" joined in they usually got "the Look" or a Scolding from Sandra....I will Miss His Laughter, I will always Cherish the Joy, Laughter, and Wonderful Memories this GIANT of a Man brought to Our Family and we will miss him terribly but also know we will see him Again...Soar High With The Angels Ronnie, we'll see you later...

Kathy, what a beautiful comment about our family and especially about my precious husband. Our life was fixing to turn a new page and we were going to be retired and happy to live the rest of our lives together, off the road. I'm lost, I'm broken, I want my baby. My life is at Carter cemetery.

“ Well I have so many memories of Ronnie growing up with him, I can't pick one. I can say this, Ronnie was always the same every time you saw him. He was friendly, funny and always laughing. He called me Pooh Pooh Jack Sprat going back to his Moma calling me that and we always laughed about it. I will miss him even though I didn't see him very often anymore. He was my first cousin but loved him like a brother. Love you Ronnie and Rest In Peace.
