“ To the Brown family, I was so sorry to read about Mrs. Rosalie. My mother, Elizabeth "Tootsie" Haydel and her worked at the school together for many years. My brother was Richard Haydel. The picture of her looked just like I remember her. Your family is in my thoughts and prayers.

“ Mr. Truett, Kenny, Clint and Michael, we are so sorry. We have so many memories of your family as neighbors and friends. It seems like only yesterday all of you and Danny and Russell were at our house shooting basketball everyday. Now you are all grown with families of your own and family was everything to Mrs. Rosalie. The only words I know to say are God's Words and He said "I will never leave you nor forsake you". He is the only true comfort. We are praying for you.
