

Rosa Mae Kinchen Traylor

April 25, 1927 - October 5, 2012

Rosa Mae Kinchen Traylor

Who can find a virtuous woman? for her price is far above rubies. Her children arise up, and call her blessed. Proverbs 31: 10, 28.

Rosa Mae Kinchen Traylor, 85, of Pumpkin Center, passed away peacefully at home at 11:41 a.m. on Friday, October 5, 2012. Rosa Mae was born on April 25, 1927, in Pumpkin Center, the daughter of Henry Howell, Sr. and Rosa Mae Rogers Kinchen. She retired from the Louisiana Department of Highways, and was a charter member of Trinity Baptist Church where she faithfully taught Sunday School for many years and played the piano during her younger days. Her gentle kindness and spiritual leadership will be greatly missed by her family and friends.

Rosa Mae leaves behind her two sons, Ronald Dale and wife Gwendolyn Effler Traylor, Mark Everett, Sr. and his wife Sonya Jenkins Traylor, along with nine grandchildren and eleven great-grandchildren. She is also survived by her brother, Marshall Curtis Kinchen and sisters, Shirley Kinchen Hill and Imogene Kinchen Kitchens.

She was preceded in death by her parents; a son, Tellius Corbett Traylor; sister, Mary Kinchen Hill; and two brothers, Henry, Jr. and Dewitt Kinchen. Relatives and friends of the family are invited to attend the celebration of her eternal life at Trinity Baptist Church in Pumpkin Center on Monday, October 8, 2012 at 11:00 a.m., with visiting hours beginning at 9:00 a.m. Rev. Dr. Randy Davis will officiate the services, assisted by Rev. John Connell and interment will follow at Jerusalem Baptist Church Cemetery on Jerusalem Church Rd in Pumpkin Center

In lieu of flowers, the family requests that donations be made in her name to the Trinity Baptist Church Building Fund.

Condolences and other information are available online at www.thompsoncares.com

Arrangements have been entrusted to Brandon G. Thompson Funeral Home.
