“ I remember Mr Sam very well when I was a waitress at the The Strawberry Patch when the Ramada Inn was still here. My precious late husband David Haston from Tennessee became a part of the family as well. We were all good friends friends who enjoyed the times the bunch was able to get together at the Iron Skillet and cut up over a cup of coffee. The best of times are spent with true friends. And Sam was indeed a true friend. I can hear the voices of David and Pete and Mr Sam joking and laughing together as vivid today as if it were 1989 all over again. Praise God

Janice, I am so sorry about Sam. I know how much you will miss him but he will also be missed, with his big smile, at the hospital. My husband and I just had lunch with him at the hospital and were so surprised to hear of his passing. We will be praying for you and your family.
