“ *Sheila, Taylor and family,
So sorry for your loss of Mrs. Sarah. Her love for her family is her legacy. My husband Joseph and I appreciated her being a patron at Tic-Tock over the years and always enjoyed her visits. She always loved giving those pretty pink or red nylon gowns for baby gifts. She would go straight to the rack, choose one and say to me “Cheryl, wrap it up!”
My mother Helen is 90 years old and is now in a healthcare facility and not doing well. I will keep you all in my prayers and trust you will keep my Mom in yours.*

“ I send All Blessings to Raymond, the children, and Barbara Jean. Although, I haven't seen any one in this family for quite some time and having been raised literally right next door, and interacting with everyone, I have only the best memories of this wonderful family. In fact, I remember when Sarah and Raymond started dating, everybody wondered when they were going to get married. Raymond {the basketball star} would pull into her driveway, Sarah would come out, dressed up nicely, get in his car and off they would go, just like in the movies.

Sarah was one of the really good people God has placed on this Earth.

“ Sarah and Raymond can be credited with saving my husband Don. She always took the time to listen and help when she could. Sarah could make you laugh when you thought the sun wouldn't shine ever again. Both of them welcomed me into the Bankston family and we have too many memories to list. However, they have made my last two Christmas special during very difficult times. I will truly miss her. She has been like a mother to me. Love you! 💕
