“ I would like to extend my condolences to the family for your loss. Death is a sting and something we will never get use to. The reason being because God created us to live and not to die. He put eternity in our hearts. God hates to see people dying so he is going to swallow up death forever. (Isaiah 25:8) He will also resurrect all in the Memorial tombs to a resurrection of life. Hope this brings u comfort and peace.

“ Such a beautiful example of a Godly woman who shared her life and family with all of our lives she touched. No one was a stranger who entered her home. I have been blessed to have worked with Ms. Sarah many years ago as a young teacher and to share in her family traditions of her authentic heritage for Sunday family dinners and recipes she passed on to our family. Her spaghetti was like no other in the world. Our prayers of strength and love are sent to ALL of the Mixon, Davis legacies. You have such a beautiful example of strength and love to guide you through the many loving memories she passed on to each of you. God be with each of you at this time. Our deepest sympathies, Sincerely, Jon Kenny and Sheryl Johnson Hughes and families.

“ Sarah will be missed . We sold Avon together for lots of years. She was the sweetest lady. I will also miss seeing her post on face book. She always had the most beautiful post. Our prayers are for her to be in the arms of our Lord. Prayers for the family at this time . She was so proud of each and every one of you.
