“ She was my sister who had the courage her entire life not to care what other people thought of her. She never judged anyone. She had a true heart and a pure soul. She was filled with compassion for others. She wanted no one to hurt or suffer. I am not angry that she has passed on, although my heart has been bleeding. Her spirit is experiencing something that we can't even imagine. An eternity of the purest form of love and peace. She deserves it.###imported-begin##Jane Anderson###imported-end##

Still missing you

Jane - May 09, 2025 at 01:01 AM

“Scarlett became a friend quickly at Hammond High School because I played off of her quick wit and she helped me in all of those Advanced Classes because the good Lord new I needed her help. Above all, she was a real person and didn't try to be anyone other than herself and I appreciated her for that. In Vocal Ensemble, she would change the song lyrics to make me laugh. I'm not sure how appropriate it is but I think Scarlett would want me to share so I will tell you one that I remember. Singing Rudolph the Red Nosed Reindeer, we had to say "Rudi is a Cutie and and he's taking us home"...da dah... Scarlett would lean over to me and say "Rudi wants some booty so he's taking her home." She was always making really funny, irreverent jokes. Furthermore, she was very smart and I remember being stumped in advanced math and she was helping me. I didn't understand why something was the way it was as in "why is the circle 360 degrees?" In frustration, she said, "Neley, sometimes things just are the way they are and you have to just accept it." I can't tell you how that helped me. It made math make so much more sense when I accepted what I needed to as a given. I have actually thought about that statement (and Scarlett) over the course of my life. Scarlett, lesson learned but at the moment, it makes me sad! What is ironic is that I finally found Scarlett recently on Facebook and we caught up and I shared the silly song remembrances with her. Scarlett, you are in my heart; I love you girlie. To her family, You are desperately in my thoughts and prayers as I can't fathom the depth of what you must be feeling. My heart is with all of you!###imported-begin##Neley Bauers##imported-end##

“ In 1977 their was two pretty little girls who met at Holy Ghost school in the second grade who became the dearest friends that nothing could ever part until june 10,2011 when that sad, heartbroken phone call came.They were also at each other homes spending the night which also led to Rhonda's little brother (10 yrs. younger) knocking on the bedroom door while Rhonda & Scarlett would be dancing, singing playing music saying "Mark was 4 yrs.old "let me in and finally they would.Mark would always say when i get big i'm gonna marry Scarlett it was always so cute to hear a little 4 yr. old saying that he always loved her and when he would see her when they got older they would hug and laugh about it. The girls always were together even this past October Rhonda had her first born that night her feet started swelling she text a picture to Scarlett phone within 20 minutes their was a knock on Rhonda's door their was Scarlett she said give me the baby,basinett you go get in your bed feet prompted up and don't worry i'll take care of Aaron..for weeks she was there for Rhonda & baby..that was her so caring and always wanting to help.I got Lupus Scarlett would come every week and give me a b-12 shot than seat on my couch and tell me i'm going to be fine just do what your Rhemy. tells you..then we would go back to all the good times when her and my kids were freinds and how she stay here almost the whole summer..that's just how good she was at 13 & 14 yrs. old never no trouble out of them..she was like my secound daughter.She came by about a month ago for a short visit with my husband & I we always was glad to see her.Their is no words that can express the sympathy to you Gordon, Elosise and sisters i know the deep hurt and will pray for the strenght in this time of sorrow.Sincerely,Albert & Barbara D.Hebert###imported-begin###Barbara D. “ I have many memories of Scarlett, but the one thing I remember quite well was she was the one I could count on to always make me laugh. She and I shared several classes together at Hammond High and if it weren't for her in my 11th grade English class, I might have had an "unsatisfactory mark" for the six weeks. Scarlett was a great student and she helped me study and begin to know that I had what it took to do well in school. We also shared Vocal Ensemble together and had great laughs and good times in there. Scarlett also took me to work many afternoons in her white Maverick which was endearingly called "The Mighty Mav." We listened to Bon Jovi, laughed and sweated all the way being that it didn't have air conditioning. I loved Scarlett because she always had time for me and was a true friend. I know she touched many lives and she will be greatly missed. My heart hurts for those left behind to grieve and mourn her passing. As Scarlett is laid to rest, my thoughts and prayers go out to those who are losing a daughter, sister, wife, mother, aunt and friend.
