“ I had the pleasure of knowing Sharon through my teen years when she lived in Winfield on soward st. She was such a kind women and so caring and funny and a great cook. She was always doing nice things for my parents. She would bring goodies over to the house and when I had my baby shower she came and we had a great time. I was so happy that she was there. I have missed her and I am so sorry for your tremendous loss and.... if you dont mind my saying...I know she is in a better place...HEAVEN! I can picture her as an angel above watching over you all with her beautiful smile and being at peace. God bless you all and thank you for your time. “ To all the children and grandchildren:

Joe & I would like to extend our deepest condolences at this very difficult time.

Your mother was a very good friend. We had many laughs together and shared some wonderful visits.

She is with the angels she loved so very much now resting in peace. She is your very own angel and will always be with you. As you look at and hold the angels she collected, may they bring you peace and a happy memory of a special time you shared with her.

We love her very much. She was a special woman and God has called her home to a better place.
