“ I knew Sharon from long years ago when we lived down the road from her mother Mrs. Olevia Hutchinson. A very loving and respectful family. I remember when she got married. I worked at her house a time or two and my mother worked for her mother. A very sweet and caring person she was, as well as the rest of her of her family!

“ I was blessed to work with Mrs. Sharon at Albany Middle School years ago. She was indeed the sweetest, most caring person. She was dedicated and compassionate when it came to helping our students, and she was a encouraging light to our teachers and staff. God bless her and your family.
