Prayer To Our Redeemer

Soul of Christ, sanctify me.

Body of Christ, save me.

Water from the side of Christ, wash me.

Blood of Christ, motivate me.

Passion of Christ, strengthen me.

O good Jesus, hear me.

Within Your wounds hide me.

Suffer me not to be separated from You.

From the malignant enemy, defend me.

At the hour of death, call me,

And bid me come to You,

That with Your saints I may praise You

Forever and ever

Act of Love

Dear Jesus, I love You with my whole heart, my whole soul, and with all my strength. May the love of Your own Sacred Heart fill my soul and purify it so that I may die to the world for love of You, as You died on the Cross for love of me. My God, You are all mine; grant that I may be all Yours in time and in eternity.

Sharon Frances McKay, 75, received her wings and entered heaven on June 16, 2023 after peacefully passing at home with family. A native of Baton Rouge and longtime resident of Livingston Parish, Sharon attended LSU and went on to become a cosmetologist and finally landed on automotive merchandiser until the time of her retirement.

Sharon is survived by long time partner John Cudd; daughters, Shannon Smith, Charmaine McKay, and Farrah Suarez (Marcus); and only son, Shane McKay (Suzanne); grandchildren, Christopher Castille, Blayne and Trey McKay, Jeremy Smith, Makaleigha and Adam Olsen, Jordan and Jared Collins, Cara and Tristan Jenkins, Brady and Hunter Hasselbeck; great-grandchildren, Abbi Castille, Carson McKay, Heidi, Jakob, Benjamin Olsen, and Ezra Collins; and her beloved fur-baby, Pugsly.

Sharon is preceded in death by her parents, John and Wanda Peel and Robert David McKay.

Tribute Wall

“ John Cudd. I am so sorry for your loss my friend. May God be with you and the family. In my prayers, your friend John Minton. ”
