“ I was sitting around on my deck the other day and saw a simple piece of wood-a Cypress knee Jim had given to me after observing me teach one day. He was my supervisor. I was telling the children about Cypress knees but I had not way to show them what one looked like. I have carried that Cypress knee around for 24 years now and every time I see it I think of his kindness and love for his students.

Jim was a good friend to me and supported me as a teacher.
