Sally, I don't know if you remember me, but I worked with you at Crapanzano Bros in Hammond for 6 1/2 years. I just wanted to let you know I am so sorry to hear about Sidney. It was a shock to me. If you remember Fred Robert I lost him after 16 years together to cancer in Sept 2017. My prayers are for you and your family. I pray God will reach down his arms and encircle you in His loving arms God bless you

“ I worked with Sidney for a number of years with Bill Hood Ford Lincoln in his post retirement. He was a kind, gentle man as everybody mentions and he had a funny and dry sense of humor. Very saddened to learn of his passing. Perhaps James Edwards has helped Sid find the finest fishing hole in Heaven by now. My prayers Sally Ann , sons, daughter-inlaws, grands and siblings. Sending special prayers up for Sidney Jr and Elizabeth whom I knew best.

“ Sidney Earl and I pretty much grew up together in Albany, when his family stilled lived in town, played together, went to school together, all that stuff.

He did not like school much {nor did I}, really hated typing class and when he got frustrated with with our typing instructions, would literally punch the typewriter with his fist....hard....bamn! I sat right next to him and always wondered why he did not hurt his hand, if he did, he never showed the pain.

Besides being a good friend, the thing that really stands out in my mind about Sidney Earl, is that he was the most gifted, natural athlete I have ever personally witnessed. I was often astonished at some of his moves, un-taught....natural.

So, to you, old friend, I wish you a most Blessed new life....

“ Mrs. Sally/Family

I never will forget the first time I saw Mr. Sid. We were at Orange street Park in Hammond at a league softball game. I was very young and had just began to play softball in independent tournaments. I remember seeing this big man with an athletic build walk to the plate to bat. Mr. Sid took a couple of pitches, and then he hit the ball, which is still to this day as far as I can ever remember seeing a ball hit at Orange Street Park, it went over the top of the light polls, and this was a time before souped up bats and balls. He was big, strong, athletic, and not a hair was out of place. That's the way I'll always remember Mr. Sid. He was a big man, but a gentle man. It does my heart good to know that in his later years Mr. Sid made peace with God. I want you to know that I am honored to be asked to officiate Mr. Sid's Celebration of Life Service.

I Love You All In The Lord,

Gene Hoyt
