

Stephanie Gale Hight

March 8, 1966 - May 13, 2026

Stephanie was born in Baltimore, Maryland to Wilma and Richard Parlaman. She joined the air force where she had her first son, Ian, and met Richard Hight and his children, Kristie and Richie. They got married shortly thereafter, blending their families and staying married until her passing. Stephanie's passions were for her family, reading novels, and performing at Renaissance faires, especially the Louisiana Renaissance Festival, which her husband co-founded. She always wanted a big family to care for and took a lot of joy in spending time with her children and grandchildren..

Stephanie passed at age sixty, on May 13, 2026 of heart issues and will be remembered as a woman who loved a good book, a bad joke, and her family more than anything else.

She is survived by Husband Rick, Children Kristie, Richie, and Ian; grandchildren: Ren, Andrew, Ayden, Tyler, Stephen, William, and Liz, Great Granddaughter Manaia, and Siblings: Roz, Janice, Allen, and Shelby
