“ Death of a Loved One

*Grief is overwhelming when a loved one dies.
We turn our faces upward with tears forming in our eyes.
"Oh, God, why did this good person's life end this day,
When you allow evil persons upon our earth to stay?"
This eternal question shows man's foolishly short vision,
And our fickle forgetfulness of Christ's grand provision.
A little boy once asked his mother, "What's it like to die"?
She thought a moment before she gave her well-thought-out reply.
"Son do you remember when you fell asleep on Grandma's rug ,
And you woke up the next morning in your own bed all safe and snug ?
Well, your Daddy picked you up in his arms with loving care,
He carried you home and tucked you in with your cuddly Teddy Bear.
Son, dying is a lot like falling asleep at Grandma's house, you see,
Except that Jesus comes to take you home with Him for all eternity.

*This mother's simple explanation to her little son,
Tells the story of the victory that Jesus Christ has won.
We can all take comfort in the knowledge of His act of love,
And rejoice that we will one day see our loved ones up above.*
