“ Stormy was one of the first people to welcome me into this community. She was the first to truly ask questions and take the time to get to know me. I will always remember her for that.

She asked about my husband—how he passed and how I was coping—and we quickly bonded over our shared experiences and emotions. There was a genuine connection in those conversations that I will always carry with me.

I will always regret not having more time and more conversations with her. Even in the short time I knew her, she made me feel close to her. That was her gift—she made people feel seen, safe, and understood. I felt I could be vulnerable with her, and that meant everything.

I will miss the conversations we never got to have. To know her was to love her almost immediately. That was simply who she was. And I truly believe she is watching over all of us now.

Truly a beautiful spirit, taken far too soon. - Diane Baum
