“ Susan was my friend. We messaged each other about a week before she passed. I loved her and I believe the feeling was mutual. I sold her and her family quite a few cars over the years. She was a fine woman that walked the walk everyday of her life. Her love of the Lord and of people were visible on a daily basis. I pray for her family to have peace that only comes from our Father in Heaven.

“ Deeply saddened for the loss of Susan Rogers Taylor. She leaves a beautiful legacy to remind each of us to be more giving, more inclusive, more God-like, as she lived her life as she lived her life. May healing peace eventually come to all - her family and friends alike.

“ I will never forget the kindness she showed my son at VBS. She treated him like he was one of her own. He was completely smitten by her and wanted to stop going to school at St. Joseph and just go to bible school so Ms. Susan could be his teacher. He knew she was an angel on earth.
