

Sybil Abigail Bankston

December 24, 1945 - September 26, 2019

Sybil, age 74, went to be with the Lord on Thursday, September 26, 2019. She was a lifelong resident of Albany, LA. She was a gifted singer who enjoyed singing gospel music as often as she could. Sybil also enjoyed traveling to any place the wind would take her. She is known as the lady who was always wearing those elaborate hats. Sybil had a heart of gold and loved and cared for everyone. Her family always came first, and she truly loved them with all her heart, along with her precious fur baby 'Peanut'. Sybil was truly a remarkable gift from God, a loving mother, grandmother, sister and friend who is already dearly missed by all who loved and knew her. Sybil is survived by her sons, Terry Wayne Kropog and Larry David Kropog; sister, Dorothy Hoyt; brother, Donald Bankston; and numerous grandchildren and great-grandchildren. She is preceded in death by her parents, Arthur and Vivian Bankston; brothers, Douglas Bankston and James Bankston.

Tribute Wall

JB

“ You’re surely going be missed fly high you was great aunt always loved you Joshua Bankston

Joshua Adam Bankston - September 28, 2019 at 05:12 PM

AS

Rest in peace. Miss Sybil. Rejoicing are around the throne of our savior. Keeping family in my prayers.

Anita Stwart - September 29, 2019 at 10:24 AM