

Tara M Coleman

December 30, 1971 - August 3, 2017

Mrs. Tara, age 45, went to be with her Lord and Savior on Thursday, August 3, 2017, after a courageous battle with cancer; she was surrounded by her loving family. She enjoyed beautiful flowers, tending to her garden, as well as going to the beach with her family and friends. Tara was a gentle spirit with a pure heart who had a true love for people. She was always praying for everyone she knew and believed that God would always be there to help you through this life and beyond. Mrs. Tara was a wonderful wife, loving mother, daughter and friend who is already deeply missed.

She leaves behind her husband of 26 years, Dewitt Coleman Jr; precious sons, Caleb Q. Coleman, Keaton G. Coleman, and Joshua N. Coleman; as well as her parents, Donald R. Moore and Cheryl C. Moore.

Preceding her in death were her grandparents, Donald J. Moore, Olive Rose Moore, Edgar A. Allen, Thelma C. Allen.

The Coleman family requests donations to be made to any Regions Bank location, (FOR THE BENEFIT OF TARA M COLEMAN), to assist with Mrs. Tara's funeral arrangements and her medical expenses. The family sincerely appreciates all your support.

Family and friends of the family are invited to attend the visitation from the chapel of Brandon G. Thompson Funeral Home, Hammond, on Sunday, August 6, 2017 from 1:00 p.m. until 4:00 p.m. A Celebration of Life Service will begin at 4:00 p.m. Pastor Richard Hamilton will officiate the services with interment to follow in Briar Patch Cemetery in Loranger.

“ Tara was so kind hearted. Easy to get along with. I love and miss her dearly. She put so much of a joy in my life. We lived 7 hours from one another but stayed in touch through text and Facebook. She would send gifts to my daughter around the holidays. I didn't get to visit enough. She fought a long hard battle with cancer for 3 years. We prayed for one another all the time. God has took this beautiful lady and made her an angel. She is no longer suffering or in pain.

“ Tara was a quiet, gentle person who loved and cared for people. I will always remember in middle of her sickness she would ask me how my Mom and Dad were doing after their house flooded. She was a special person who we will miss deeply.
