

Theresa Bankston Carr

August 15, 1939 - April 8, 2015

Theresa Carr, age 75 and a longtime resident of Baptist, peacefully passed away on April 8, 2015, surrounded by her loving family. Mrs. Carr was a dedicated teacher who retired from the Livingston Parish School System. She also taught bible school and was a very active member of New Hope Baptist Church. Theresa had a fondness for children and a passion for molding their young minds, making sure to guide them during her time as a teacher.

Theresa is survived by her daughter, Joyce Whiddon and husband Robert; sons, Michael Carr and wife Tara, and Chad Carr. She is also survived by numerous grandchildren, great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews and friends.

She is preceded in death by her loving husband, Larry Carr; parents, Henry Bankston and Nancy Tate; brothers, Douglas "Coon" Bankston, Leroy Bankston, and Willie "Dub" Bankston.

Relatives and friends are invited to the visitation on Sunday, April 12, beginning at 12:00 p.m. until the funeral service at 2:00 p.m. Interment will follow in Greenlawn Cemetery and Brother Clay Spinks will officiate the services.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the National Alzheimer's Foundation at www.alzheimers.org

Condolences and other information are available at www.thompsoncares.com

“ Mrs T. Carr , the memories I have are of a gentle ,loving teacher to all her students & co workers! Such a wonderful Lady!! A memory I have to share is that every day at recess she would leave her purse in the teachers lounge, and I was working in a classroom close to her so I would bring it to her , she would laugh and and give me a hug! Mrs. T. Carr you will be missed but never forgotten! Barbara Arceneaux
