“ I was so saddened to hear of Thomas' passing. We went through the Tangi Master Gardener program together and even graduated side by side. You couldn't help but immediately like him—he had a way of speaking to everyone and making them feel welcome. Such a gentle soul who will be deeply missed.

“ My name is Carrie and I worked with Dr. Eisenman for many years. I have fond memories of Sunrise Hospital and Dr. Eisenman. One memory is when Dr. Eisenman would bring Thomas with him to Make rounds on the weekends. He was a kind, bright little boy then and we nurses had fun keeping him occupied while Daddy made rounds or did a delivery. I am so sorry for your loss. You are in my thoughts and prayers. Rest in peace, Thomas.

“ I am so sorry to hear the news about Thomas. Thomas and I grew up together, best friends connected at the hip. I have so many amazing memories of him, whether it was chasing rabbits in the backyard, riding our bikes through the neighborhood, adding 5 extra squares of cheese to our already cheesy macaroni and cheese at the Eisenman house... he filled my childhood with some of the best memories a kid could ask for. Always laughing, always fun, always looking for our next adventure and mischief together. Im heartbroken for the Eisenman family. Sending lots of hugs. I will always have memories of Thomas in my heart forever. XOXO
