“ Tom, we shared 34 years of our marriage. Some were good and weren't so good. We shared two sons through their younger years. I truly hope you were saved and up with our holy God. We've loved each other through most of our marriage. I'm sorry we didn't get to settle our differences. But my love has had a place in my heart and always will. I hope you are at peace and out of the pain you were in. Just thought I'd share some of my heart that you would always have a place to remember you. Love, Sandy ( wife ).

Sandy - Sorry to hear about Tom's passing. He was a Lew Wallace High School classmate and friend of mine but I hadn't seen him for a number of years. I first met you in 1971 shortly after your wedding while you and Tom were living in Miami in an apartment off SR836. I had transferred to Miami Law School at the time. Please send me your email address to maine.atty@gmail.com. - Don Ferguson.
