

Thomas "Tommy" Wayne Sandefur

February 18, 1960 - July 6, 2022

Tommy Sandefur, a lifelong resident of Albany, La, passed away peacefully at his home July 6th, 2022.

He was survived by his two daughters Jodie Clark (Tyler) and Janie Morgan (Bubba). His five grandchildren London (Squirt), Noah (D.A), Charlee (little bit), Logan (worm), and Tommy (catfish), and his newest member Ellie Mae. His brother C.W. Sandefur Jr. (Cathy), Brother-in-law Emile Milton. Numerous nieces & nephews.

He was preceded in death by his parents Charles Sandefur and Rosa Mae While Sandefur. His sister Jane Milton, and the son he never had, Charlie Dog.

He spent his time working on his S-10, fishing, swinging many hours on his swing. He was Mr. fix it. Everyone knew they could call him for anything. He would tell his girls "Just leave it by the door" and he would have it fixed by the next day.

The one thing he loved more than his miller lite was his girls and family. You never saw him without his family and a smile on his face.

This isn't goodbye Daddy, just simply see you later. Groovy!
