“ My sympathies go out to Miss Dottie and Mr. C.J. for their and our loss. I have a hard time digesting the fact that two mighty fine men have been stolen from us well before their time. It's because of this we have to believe that life is the most precious gift we can ever have, and we have to be grateful for each and every day.##imported-begin##Buddy Morgan##imported-end##

“ I too had the great pleasure meeting Tim during the Katrina project. He was my "knight in shining armor." Me and a co-worker were following DEQ reps to NOLA on IH10 when all of a sudden our vehicle stalled out 2 miles into Lake Pontchartrain bridge. We were clueless as to who to call to help us out. Luckily Tim came to our rescue. Since we had to abandon the vehicle and continue with our mission. Tim drove all the way from home base to recover our personal belongings and equipment. Without Tim I don't know if our belongings would have remain in the vehicle once we got back. I will miss his great sense of humor and friendly smile. My thoughts and prayers are with his family who he loved very much.##imported-begin##Barry Barker##imported-end##

“ Tim had exceptional character. He was fierce, yet compassionate, he was honest, yet sincere, he was wise, he was full of integrity, he was a leader in every way - but above all, he was loving. You knew that about Tim if ever present when he spoke of his children or his church. I am still waiting for him to walk through the door looking for coffee. I had the pleasure of working with him for the past six months. In my opinion, he is an immeasurable loss to our company. My deepest sympathies to all of his family, especially his children.##imported-begin##BECKY BARRERA##imported-end##

“ I met Tim at Katrina and he wasn't exactly grace under pressure, but he always got the job done. He had that indulgent smile that made any problems seem just that much less important.

Our Prayers and Condolences go out to the Decker Family. Tim very much loved his family and this is a shock to all of us. Please know that our thoughts are with you and may God hold you and Tim in his arms. God must have truly had a new mission for Tim to have called him home. Maybe he needed one more angel to make sure he got his point across.##imported-begin##Anna Berlin##imported-end##

“ I worked with Tim in New Orleans in Nov and Dec 2005 and I thought he was a great person. He was a person that I could share a situation or a story with and he always made me smile. He, along with many others, sent support to me when I had a stroke in May of 2006.

Tim was a wonderful person, and he will be missed by many people. I will miss very much.

My sympathy is offered to the family in this extremely tough time.

Sincerely,

“ I worked with Tim in Louisiana for only a short time, and he was truly a unique person who I will always remember. In the heat of the hurricane response, with numerous unreasonable request of him every day, Tim somehow kept his cool. He missed his family during that time and regretted the time he spent apart. May he rest in peace, and may knowing he is with Jesus provide comfort to his family.##imported-begin##Jeffery Gellerson and family##imported-end##

“ My time with Tim was short when we worked together in Miami. The one thing that will stick in my mind is his ability to laugh at the absurd when all around everyone else felt the pressures of the project. “ Tim was always willing to help when asked to do drama parts at the church when I attended there.
He portrayed Jesus in "The Alabaster Box" which was touched by all. Tim and I talked once about salvation and he assured me that he was very happy to have given his heart to the Lord. He also sayed he was trying hard to get "all" his loved ones in church. Our prayers are with the family. Skipper and Rhonda##imported-begin##Alvin and Shannan Ramirez##imported-end##
