

Tod Allbritton

May 25, 1965 - May 3, 2016

Tod Allbritton

Tod, a native of West Monroe and a resident of Albany, was surrounded by his loving family when he was called home after a 12 year strong and courageous battle with colon cancer. He was a very kind man who was very active in his community in many ways, such as serving as a committee member and being a football, baseball, softball coach for the AYA. Tod was proud business owner of the UPS Store in Denham Springs, Louisiana, an animal lover and a family man that will be missed greatly by all who knew him.

Tod is survived by his wife, Stacy, daughters, Abby and Cori, and son Tyler, all of his home. He is also survived by his parents, Karen and Neal Heath of West Monroe; mother-in-law, Annette Hardy; grandmother, Gloria Allbritton of West Monroe; brothers-in-law, Gary Hardy and Wendal Hardy of Port Barre; nieces, Hanna Soilleau and husband Jay, and Courtney Hardy; 27 aunts and uncles, 27 cousins, and a host of friends and ball players.

He is preceded in death by his father, Bobby Allbritton of West Monroe; grandparents, Jim McClung, Sue Johnston and Earl Allbritton all of West Monroe; and father-in-law, Jimmy Hardy of Port Barre.

Relatives and friends of the family are invited to attend the visitation from the chapel of Brandon G. Thompson Funeral Home, Hammond, on Thursday, May 5, 2016 from 6:00 p.m. until 9:00 p.m. The Mass of Christian Burial Will be held at St. Margaret Catholic Church in Albany on Friday at 10:00 a.m. Father Jamin David will officiate and interment will in West Monroe, Louisiana at a later date.

In lieu of flowers donations may be made to Mary Bird Perkins Cancer Center, Albany Football Program and St. Margaret Catholic Church.
