“ Shared many cups of coffee at Church and Men’s Prayer Breakfast. I’m just now seeing his obituary April. T.C. was one of the most humble men I’ve ever known. One could tell by just talking with , he was a true Servant of Christ. He set his sights on God in Heaven. Besides, Christ, his immediate family and Church families, he seemed as if he would do anything for anyone in need. I remember he was chairman of the Pastor Search Committee, a calling he didn’t take lightly, as he prayed and searched with his fellow committee’s . He let God lead him until the right person was found. He was a true servant, friend and naturally a family man. He loved his Wife Mrs. Freddie , children and grandchildren and all of his Church Family. I will forever be reminded of his kind Heart and prayer 🙏 and fellowship with him. I am deeply saddened by his passing and wish to extend our warmest prayers and condolences to Mrs. Freddie and his intire Family. I know Jesus was waiting for him with open arms. Sadly missed, but not forgotten.
