

Trula Webb Moore

June 10, 1924 - September 6, 2015

Trula died peacefully in the arms of her daughter, Connie Moore, at Heritage Healthcare in Hammond, La. on September 6, 2015. She was born on June 10, 1924 in Converse, La. She moved to New Orleans after high school. While waiting for her high school sweetheart to return from WWII, she worked at Henderson Sugar Refinery and attended a business school for women. She continued working after marriage at Near Distributors and as the head accountant at Primary Color Lab from which she retired. She lived most of her married life in Slidell, La. and attended First Baptist church. There she was a devoted Christian and reached out to helping community members by cooking and delivering meals to those in need. After losing her home in Slidell to hurricane Katrina, she moved to Hammond to be close to her son, Stephen Moore and his family. She was a loving mother, wife and friend to those she encountered. She was married 60 years to Mack Elree Moore who preceded her in death in 2008. Trula loved cooking for her family, gardening, visiting and talking to family and neighbors. Mom was a loving person who knew no strangers. She will be missed by many.

She leaves behind; Stephen Moore I, Carla Moore, Connie Moore, Lisa Forrester, Stephen Moore II, Jessica Moore and other relatives and friends. She is preceded in death by her parents and numerous siblings.

Relatives and friends are invited to attend the visitation from the chapel of Brandon G. Thompson Funeral Home, Ponchatoula, on Friday, September 11, 2015, from 12:00 p.m. until the religious service at 1:00 p.m. Bro. Jim Baham will be officiating and interment will follow in Parklawn Cemetery.

In lieu of flowers donations may be made in memory of Trula Moore to:
