Tyton Eros Strother

Tyton, age 22, passed away on April 10, 2025, surrounded by his family. He was a resident of Independence, LA. Tyton was so full of life and loved to joke around and have fun with his friends and family. He was genuinely a kind young man that would do anything he could to help others. Tyton was a lover of all animals and even had a few dogs of his own. Just like most boys he, liked fast cars, shooting guns, and playing video games. Tyton loved his family deeply and took his role as a brother very seriously. He had an unmeasurable number of friends and left an impact on each one of them. To know him was to love him and you couldn't help but smile when having a conversation with him. Tyton was a wonderful person with a heart of gold that will be forever missed.

He is survived by his parents, Jessica and Carlos Juarez; father, Cleamen Strother; sisters, Heaven-leigh Brown, Aurora Juarez; brothers, Native Strother, Lucio Juarez, Carlos Juarez II; grandparents, Reba Ducote, Bobby Brown, Valbina Ramos; and numerous aunts, uncles, and cousins.
