

Vernis Baham Westmoreland

December 19, 1928 - December 27, 2013

Vernis Baham Westmoreland

Age 85 and a lifelong resident of Tickfaw, Vernis passed away on Friday, December 27, 2013 at the Richard Murphy Hospice House. She was retired from the Department of Transportation and Development after 33 years of dedicated service and was a member of Immanuel Baptist Church in Hammond. Vernis loved her family unconditionally and enjoyed making wedding cakes for many families all over the country.

Vernis leaves behind her son, Larry Westmoreland and wife Genevieve "Gigi", along with her granddaughter, Kelly Vinyard and husband Amos; great-grandchildren, Alex, Kade and Kaylee Vinyard. She is also survived by her brother, Rev. Stanley Eugene Baham.

Preceding Vernis in death were her husband, Vernon Westmoreland; parents, Eugene and Irene Baham; infant sister, Anice Baham.

Relatives and friends of the family are invited to attend the religious services from the chapel of Brandon G. Thompson Funeral Home, west of Hammond, on Tuesday, December 31, 2013 at 2:00 p.m., with visiting hours beginning at 9:30 a.m. Rev. Lonnie Wascom will officiate the services and interment will follow in Parklawn Memorial Gardens.

Memorial donations may be made in memory of Vernis to North Oaks Hospice or the Richard Murphy Hospice House.

Condolences and other information are available online at www.thompsoncares.com

Arrangements have been entrusted to Brandon G. Thompson Funeral Home.

“ So sorry to hear about Maw Maw! I talked to Kelly today, and we were talking and remembering all the fun times spent at her house. Being the sweet little angels we were, she never had to fuss at us...Ever!! LOL I told Kel, every time I cook greenbeans with the new potatoes I think of her! They were the BEST!! Thats the first time I ever ate them, was in her kitchen! She will be greatly missed and I'm honored to have called her my Maw Maw too! I love you guys!
