“ When I worked at the Ponchatoula Branch Library, Mrs. Violet and Mr. Roy were faithful patrons. It was always a joy to be able to get books in that they enjoyed reading. She spoiled us by bringing in her pralines every Christmas. They were so delicious and we looked forward to them every year. I still think about her during the holidays and bringing in those pralines. She will surely be missed. Remembering all of you in prayer for peace and comfort - the hope we will be with her again in eternity.

“ *Jimmy, Ricky and family my heartfelt sympathy goes out to all of you. I have many fond memories of growing up next to Vi and Roy. Summer days spent at camp Tangipahoa River, ice cream floats at Lee's and many many hours spent visiting at Chestnut Street house. She will be missed but not forgotten.
