“ When I lived on the North Shore we saw a lot of each other and you were very kind to me and you didn't know who I was and it didn't matter so it stuck with me early on. I remember at my wedding when how much fun you had and oh how you danced. I also have a fond memory of when Wade and I came to visit you after you had a stroke and how you were so happy to see us and we came to see you once a week for a while and it meant so much to the both of us. And how you fought to get better. Rest in peace Ginny. Love C
