

Vivian "Lee" Bjornsen

January 17, 2016

Vivian "Lee" Harrington Bjornsen

Lee, age 58, passed away on Sunday, January 17, 2016, at the University Medical Center in New Orleans surrounded by her loving family. Lee was the type of person who could name that song if you hummed it, no matter how bad it sounded; who was too smart for her own good and blunt with every word she spoke, it didn't matter who it was towards, they would sit there and take it because it was more than likely the truth; but then smile and light up the room and say something funny to make everyone laugh; she would make your favorite food then gripe about how long it would take to make; and would make sure she always looked great, even if it was just for ten minutes.

Everyone who met Lee fell in love with her outgoing, free spirited personality, along with her sassiness, stubbornness and even her occasional mean streak. The love she had for her daughters was uncompered, they were her pride and joy and knew that they are just like her in so many ways. Lee was a one of a kind woman that can never be replaced and who will be deeply missed by so many.

Lee leaves behind her husband, Tom Bjornsen; daughters, Christina Pierce and Allisyn Danos; step-son, Jonathan Bjornsen; parents, Vivian Wilson and husband Tommy, Raleigh Harrington and wife Billie; brother, Thomas Harrington and wife Gail; grandchildren, Nicholas "Nick" Tate, Gabe Kluka, Ty Doran and little Mckinleigh “Kinleigh” Giamalva; as well as her fur babies, Natasha and Angel.

Preceding Lee in death were her daughter, Melissa; grandmother, Marie Billiot; and her fur baby, Spot.

Relatives and friends are invited to the visitation, Saturday, January 23, 2016, from 4:00 p.m. until the Celebration of Life Service at 7:00 p.m.

“ I have so many special memories of my best friend-of 41 yrs.Especially going out dancing, shopping trips, long phone conversations for hrs.at a time and spending time together at family gatherings. I still miss you terribly after 4 long yrs. and think about you all the time! I miss your infectious laugh, your wit and your beautiful smile! Til we meet again and rekindle our sisterhood with a big heavenly party; Melissa, you, and I along with all of our loved ones will have the biggest party ever!

“ Lee-you were my sister in law BUT more than that you were my friend !!! A friend that was there for me -no matter what I needed. We were FAMILY !!! I am going to miss our phone conversations , the sound of your voice-the late calls ,the talking for hours. We would go for long periods of time without talking and pick up where we left off on the next call. I will hold the memories we made together close to my heart-we stirred up some s together. I know that you are at peace now-no more sickness-no more pain & that you are with Melissa looking down from heaven watching over us all. I love you -Rest in peace my dear friend-until we meet again.

“ She was my Best Friend, I can't think of anyone else that knew me more than she did We shared everything and when the chips were down, we could call each other up and complain or laugh over it. Lee joined our family by marrying my little brother, John, so I also got to call her Sis. I can't tell you all the stories, cause there are too many, but the main one I remember is Lee and I walking into a local Pub in California. We acted all tough all the time, cause we were Biker Babes, hahaha! This one time, she was acting too tough cause one of the girls got mad. Little did we know she was part of a lot of girls. Anyway, as Lee is spouting off at her, I'm watching as the girls start forming up around us. Lee, as she was, a brute, took a swing at the girl she was yelling at which caused a big ruckus. She didn't hit so she took another one and nailed her in the jaw! Everyone rushed at her, so I jumped in too! Grabbed her, starting running out the door, slugged the last girl, never hit anyone ever before and just happened to knock her down, which caused a block in the doorway. Lucky for us we high tailed it up the road got in the car and took off! We laughed for hours after that cause neither one of us got hurt, I can still hear her laughing, cussing out the girl. There was never a dull minute with her and so many surprises. I know this story is kind of crude or dumb, whatever you want to say, but it makes me laugh and I'm sure she will remember that too and laugh. I don't believe in death, I believe our spirit goes on forever and even comes back to earth to be another person if chosen, so I know Lee is visiting, laughing, hugging all the ones that have passed over, including my Dad and Melissa, her daughter. And someday when she's ready, she will come back to experience life on earth again, as a human or a butterfly, the choice is hers. I wish I could have helped her through all the pain and suffering for the last years, I tried, but it was just too much for her. Probably would be for most. I hope someday she communicates through spirit to me, it's only a dimension away, she promised she would and I will let all of you know how great she is doing. I'm sure she is. I wait for signs from her and for the day I will laugh with her again, as a butterfly or as a human, I hope next time we can be sisters again. Love you Lee, forever.
