“ Dwight and Kim,

I worked with Carolyn at the office in Livingston for nine years. I was shocked to see her obituary in the paper. I did not know she was ill. My deepest sympathies and prayers are with you. She was a great Christian lady. I lost my father in May, who had been retired from state work, but who was also a pastor. When we lose someone this great, it feels as though we will never recover. Know this, that God will help us through this too. Your wife, Dwight, and your mother, Kim, left us all a Christian legacy to remember and follow. May God bless you through this time and comfort your hearts.##imported-begin##Gralin & Karen Buratt##imported-end##

“ Dwight, Kim, and family,
We are so very sorry for your loss. Carolyn was a wonderful, loving person and it was a privledge to have known her for many years. She was at her best and was happiest when she was taking care of her family, and anyone else who needed it along the way. You are all in our thoughts and prayers.##imported-begin##Frank E. “ Kim & Dwight, We were so sorry to hear about Carolyn. We knew she was sick, but this was too fast. We all know that God has his loving arms around her & she is watching down on both of you. Her life was taking care of you two & loving it. She was such a beautiful person, always smiling & puting others before herself. We have such fun memories of when Kim & Brandon were younger. We were always right there with them, having fun too. Those were the good old days, Carolyn was always sparkling-no matter where we were. You both will always be in our hearts & prayers. We love you . Johnny & Joyce##imported-begin##Pete & Phyllis Watts##imported-end##

“ Kim & Dwight:
Please know our thoughts are with you during this time. Anyone who ever met Ms. Carolyn would agree that their lives were forever touched for having known her. She's one of the only people I ever met who always, ALWAYS had a smile on her face. Her positive attitude was contagious.
We know you will always have part of her with you as you travel the future roads without her, but she'll be right there watching over you, with a kind whisper for you when you need.
Keep your chins up and know we are all with you, in thought and prayer.##imported-begin##Jennifer Forbes##imported-end##

“ Dwight and Kim,

I know that Carolyn loved you both with every fiber of her being. I hope that your sorrow can be overcome by precious memories. I will continue to pray for you.

Carolyn was one of the very dearest friends I have ever had. She was a special person whom I trusted and loved. I regret greatly that we had grown apart with our busy lives in the past few years.

Carolyn was the first person I told when I thought I was pregnant with my first child. She was the friend who cared for me when I was seriously ill in the hospital, and I will never ever forget how good she was to me. When our children were small, we shared Christmas mornings and plans for the future, as well as everyday life.

Through a fondly remembered season of my life, Carolyn was the person who kept me going at work as well as personally. She even always reminded me when it was time to renew my driver's license.

Carolyn was good to everyone. Words cannot express how special she was, how dearly she was loved, or how much she will be missed.##imported-begin##Mike Blount##imported-end##

“ As a close friend to your family, we wanted to express our deepest sympathies to all your family and friends. These things are tough, and it hurts to see the ones you love go through the pain. It seems that life goes by so fast when you look back at the good times. If there any way we could help end your pain we would.
Our Prayers are with your family.##imported-begin##Debbie Blount##imported-end##
