“ There aren't enough words to describe how loving, kind, fun, and just all around wonderful man Mr. Wayne was. He will be greatly missed by many. On a good note he and his buddy Curtis are throwing darts together again. Rest high Popa Wayne.

“ I'm so, so sorry for everyone's loss where Mr. Wayne was concerned. Wade can tell you that my first memory of him is me on his motorcycle leaving Tin Lizzy's — not KNOWING WHO THE HECK HE WAS—- but I knew that Wade would never let me leave there with a stranger he didn't trust. We went back to the Freeman house on his motorcycle to check on his HUGE dog (beautiful dog, by the way)... and we fed him and then hopped right back on the bike to Tin Lizzy's to meet back up with everyone. He was so sweet. Another memory is of Larry and Chantell on a canou trip with Wade and me on the Tickfaw and him bringing us a paddle — dropped it off on one of the bridges along the way because we got turned over at some point.... No judgement... just “ya'll be careful from here”... wow... my heart goes out to all his loved ones. He was one of the good ones.....
