“ We are sorry to read of Mrs Louise’s passing. May you all be blessed with good memories. I have many pleasant memories of visiting her at Melba’s house when I stayed at Aunt Betty and Uncle Owen’s house, as a child. Our prayers are with you all. Bryan Ostendorf and Family.

“ How wonderful that Mrs Coon graced our lives for so long. I am sorry for your loss. My memories of her are many, but my favorite is her hosting a surprise BBQ in her backyard for my 16th birthday! She “connived” with my mother to have me bring her a dress pattern, and I was greeted by a houseful of happy friends. I had never had a birthday party, so you can understand what an impressive gift it was in itself! I’ve never forgotten that act of kindness by Mts. Coon.
