“ So sorry that I am only today (February 11, 2022) learning of Jack's passing. I have not seen him in more than 40 years but I knew him well enough before to attest to his faith in Christ and his love of family. Jack was a very kind person, and I will always be grateful for the favors he rendered me. Some of my favorite memories go back to the early 70's when I coached Rory in Little Conference Football. Rory was a good little athlete and Jack was a supportive dad and model parent; because of him we were a lot better team than we would have been otherwise. Only wish I could have thanked one more time before his departure.
