“ We always had so much fun with the "Three Bailey Boys" on our very special Summer Vacations when you were much younger. We will treasure those memories forever and ever! Terry kept pestering Yancey EVERYWHERE we traveled and I just knew some fingers were going to have to be stitched before that vacation ended; but Terry got to be very fast getting away from that little dog! Coyt was not as fast getting away from the geese at our hotel though; Coyt did not like those creatures and they seemed to want to attack just him! Johnny was never attacked by any animals; he was too busy trying to keep up with how much money we were spending; which was impossible to do because one of us was always thirsty, hungry or we found a new souvenir shop to invade! We did make it home without any bloodshed and headed out again the next year. We thank God very often for blessing us with such special, fun, loving nephews. You will always be in our hearts.

“Dad,
Words can't express the gratitude I have for all the life lessons and skills you have prepared me for. You were my hero, my rock, and my best friend. You were way more than my father. The memories I will cherish for ever. You were taken from us way too soon. But God had other plans that only he knows about. Even though I'm devastated right now, I promise I will continue to make you proud day in and day out. I'm not sure how to live this life on earth without you. But I know between you, paw paw, Jarod and all our other loved ones up there, y'all will continue to be my guardian angels and walk me through this. I'm going to miss you so much dad. I'm going to miss everything about you. I can't wait for our souls to meet again. Please help our family get through this. I love you daddy. Rest easy and fly high!
