

Zelda G. Fayard

August 10, 1950 - August 13, 2008

Zelda Gae Fayard

The joy and laughter she gave to others will always be remembered by her sister, brothers, nieces, nephews and friends. She was 58 and a resident of Springfield. Zelda became an Angel in Heaven on Wednesday, August 13, 2008. She was a client of Options, Inc. for over fifteen years and worked through the program with SLU Lab School and she never allowed her handicap to interfere with living life to the fullest.

Zelda is survived by her devoted sister and brother-in-law, Mona (Fayard) and Terry Williams; loving brothers, Wayne Fayard and Dalton Fayard. She leaves behind caring nieces and nephews; they are Wally Fayard, John Fayard and wife Miranda, Roger Fayard and wife Shannon, Floyd Fayard and wife Rachel, Wesley Fayard, Marcie Thompson and husband Terry, Christina Guzzardo and husband David; great-nieces and great-nephews, Brittany and Bradley Fayard, Summer Cunningham, Hunter Fayard, Clint and Cody Thompson and Savannah Guzzardo.

Annette Bruno was her very special roommate at Hammond Nursing Home. After the death of Zelda's mom in December-2007, Annette claimed to be "step-mom" and always made sure Zelda was taken care of.

Zelda was preceded in death by her parents, Lucius Wallace Fayard and Vivian Hoover Fayard, brother, T.C. Fayard, two nephews, Bryan Fayard, Clifford Ray Fayard and one niece, Katrina Fayard.

“ My thoughts and prayers are with all of you in this difficult time. Just remember that where she is now, there's only peace...and she'll be preparing a place for us so that when we get there one day, we can all rejoice together.

My love to all of you.

“ I am so sorry to see of Zelda's passing online. I remember the fun we had as kids. Cheryl K, myself and Zelda would run and chase each other outside. She always had fun in whatever she did. God Bless You!##imported-begin##Kristie Bazile##imported-end##
